To the class of '99,

Your yearbook is more than just a collection of photographs, grad comments and pages of text. It contains memories which you will refer to over and over again in the years to come. You will look back and remember your years at The Sacred Heart School of Montreal. Hopefully these years were filled with good memories, memories which will last a lifetime.

Five years have come and gone very quickly. I have overheard many of you comment to each other about your first days at Sacred Heart and that it is hard to believe that the time went by so fast. You are now moving on to the next phase in your educational lives, one where you begin planning your own future. I am confident that the time spent at Sacred Heart has prepared you very well for the challenges which will face you in the years to come. Good luck and remember to keep in touch.

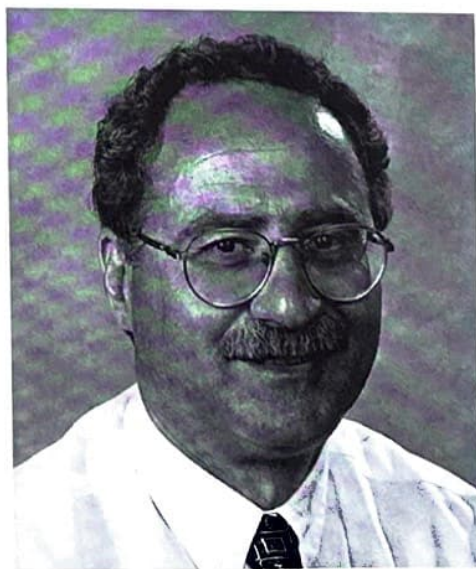

P. Kousik

To the class of '99

There are so many things I'd like to say, but my space is limited so I must be selective. I used to believe that happiness could only be found after arriving at my heart's destination. Now that I have spent many years on the road from Here to There, I have come to an awakening. It is good to have an end to journey towards; but the spirit of the journey is as important, if not more important, than the arrival at our destination. Carpe Diem! Live every day of the journey. Read, travel, learn, experience all that is out there. Your next chapter begins at a very exciting time for women. Take every opportunity and "Live Life". Choose to be an active participant- not a bystander.

Fondly,
R. Del Torto

Barat

To all of Barat: You have been a great house for as long as I can remember and you have helped make my last year here the best. Thanks to Pauline, Tiff and Mariana for helping me out and dealing with my spastic moods. You've all been great! Don't forget... always strive for THE PLAQUE!

Love,

Barat Househead '99
Meagan Penny

Digby

Being househead has certainly been interesting! Many thanks to my executive, Ms. Antonini, the affiliates and all the Digbians for making my last year memorable.

Amanda

Duchesne

WE ARE RED HOT! R-E-D H-O-T GO DUCHESNE! It was a great year and each and every Duchesner has managed to make it a very memorable one. Thank you to the talented swing dancers, the waitresses, the two ginos, little Super Snazz, the art helpers and the bouncer for making our "Swingin' House Day" a firing success!

Special hugs to Megan, Katie, Melissa, Ms. Mastro and Ms. Vaupshas for your support! I couldn't have done without you! Thank you Ms. Glickman for all your wonderful ideas. Thanks to all the Duchesners for "looking interested" while I rambled continuously during a House Meeting or giving me that smile when I stood up there in front of you like a bundle of nerves. It was loads of fun being your House Head this year! Each and everyone of you has managed to find a special spot, which will forever be engraved in my heart.....

Barbara Miedzybrodzki

DuRousier

"Let me hear you say YELLOW!" To all my wonderful Du Rousians, you've made this year a memorable one and I will NEVER forget any of you. Stand tall and continue to be proud of what you are: BIG BIRD LOVERS! Ms. De Mello, Ms. Burns, Ms. Martel, Mrs. Crowe, Señor Kucher, thank you for all your support and encouraging smiles. A special thank you goes out to my exec.'s: Anne-Marie, Thuy-Lan and Julia. I could not have done anything without you. YOU'VE ALL MADE ME PROUD TO BE YOUR HOUSEHEAD

Love, Ayesha

Hardey

Orange day, orange peeling, orange is NOT tacky. You have all helped to make this year great. I thank you Monsieur Soret and affiliates but mostly all members. You guys are great. Thanks for giving me the chance to know you. I tried my best, hope you had fun. Good luck next year, monkeys!

Caitlin

Sheldon

It was an amazing year for Sheldon, we came in second at Christmas! Sheldon day rocked! Thanks so much Jen, Anna and Pam for everything, and Miss Potter for all your support. I hope everyone in Sheldon had as great a time as I did. Thanks for making my last year memorable. As Kermit the frog said, "It's not easy being green; but it sure is worth it." It's great to be green. TURTLE POWER!
Maddy XOXO

Stuart

We've had our good times & our bad times, but overall, it's been an amazing year! I will never forget our endless games of Telephone and, I can honestly say, Stuart Day was da bomb! I wouldn't have survived this year without my executives, Jocelyne, Krystyna & Christine. Thanks a million! I would also like to thank all my Stuartians, & Mr.

umming, Mlle Young, Mrs. Brues, Mr. Hammet & Mr. Bahou, for making this a year to remember forever. And to Mme Habachi, "Mille baisers." I love you all, and I will miss you dearly. You made me proud to wear my green tie. Love, Gayle

Trincano

To all my Trincanian friends,

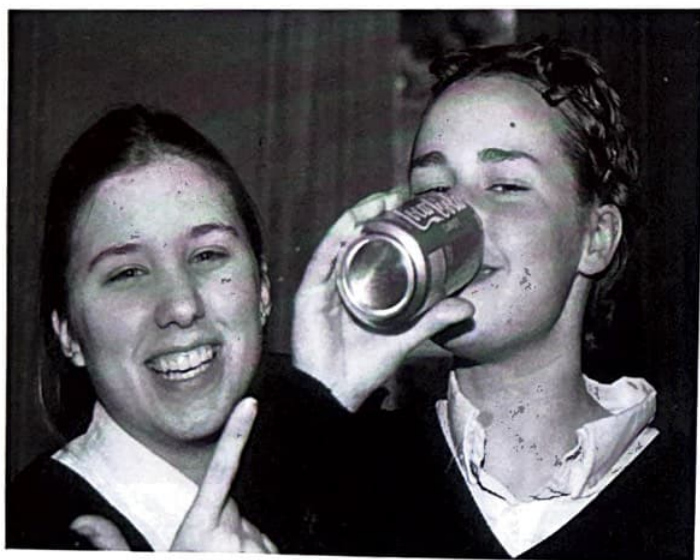

Thanks for this wonderful year especially to Julia, Carolyn and Missy. This year passed so fast and I'm sorry to be going because I loved being your househead (so many purple cows to draw.) I seems like just yesterday I was stammering in the first house meeting. Although I looked scared to death up there, I'm happy it was in front of such under- standing purple cow lovers. All those "Please, be quiet!" meant nothing to me. I was completely overwhelmed by your enthusiasm for the house. Keep it that way. PURPLE POWER! Trincano's #1 forever in my heart (and so are all of you.) Love, Trincano househead '99, Ginny

Valedictory Address

Today, I stand here representing the last graduating class of this century. As a song once said: "We saved the best for last."

Now, as we leave Sacred Heart, we take with us more than the habit of dressing in uniform every morning. We take with us the memories of Café Kular cheesecake, retreats, carnivals, walk-a-thons and a sense of pride in all that we have learned, ready to face whatever the future may bring. However, our education extends beyond books. We have learned the true value and importance of helping our communities through teamwork, communication skills, and a sense of compassion.

Of all we have acquired during the past five years, the most important gifts are the friends we have made. I speak for many when I say that I have been fortunate to have spent my high school years with such wonderful, witty, smart and creative people. Good friends such as these are hard to find and it is rare to find so many at once. I have shared many secrets and tears and much laughter with these friends. Being with them always brought out the best in me.

In the same way, some people, both teachers and students, challenge us and in their own way, brought out the best in us. They tested our patience at times, disagreed with us and ultimately, they have helped make us stronger.

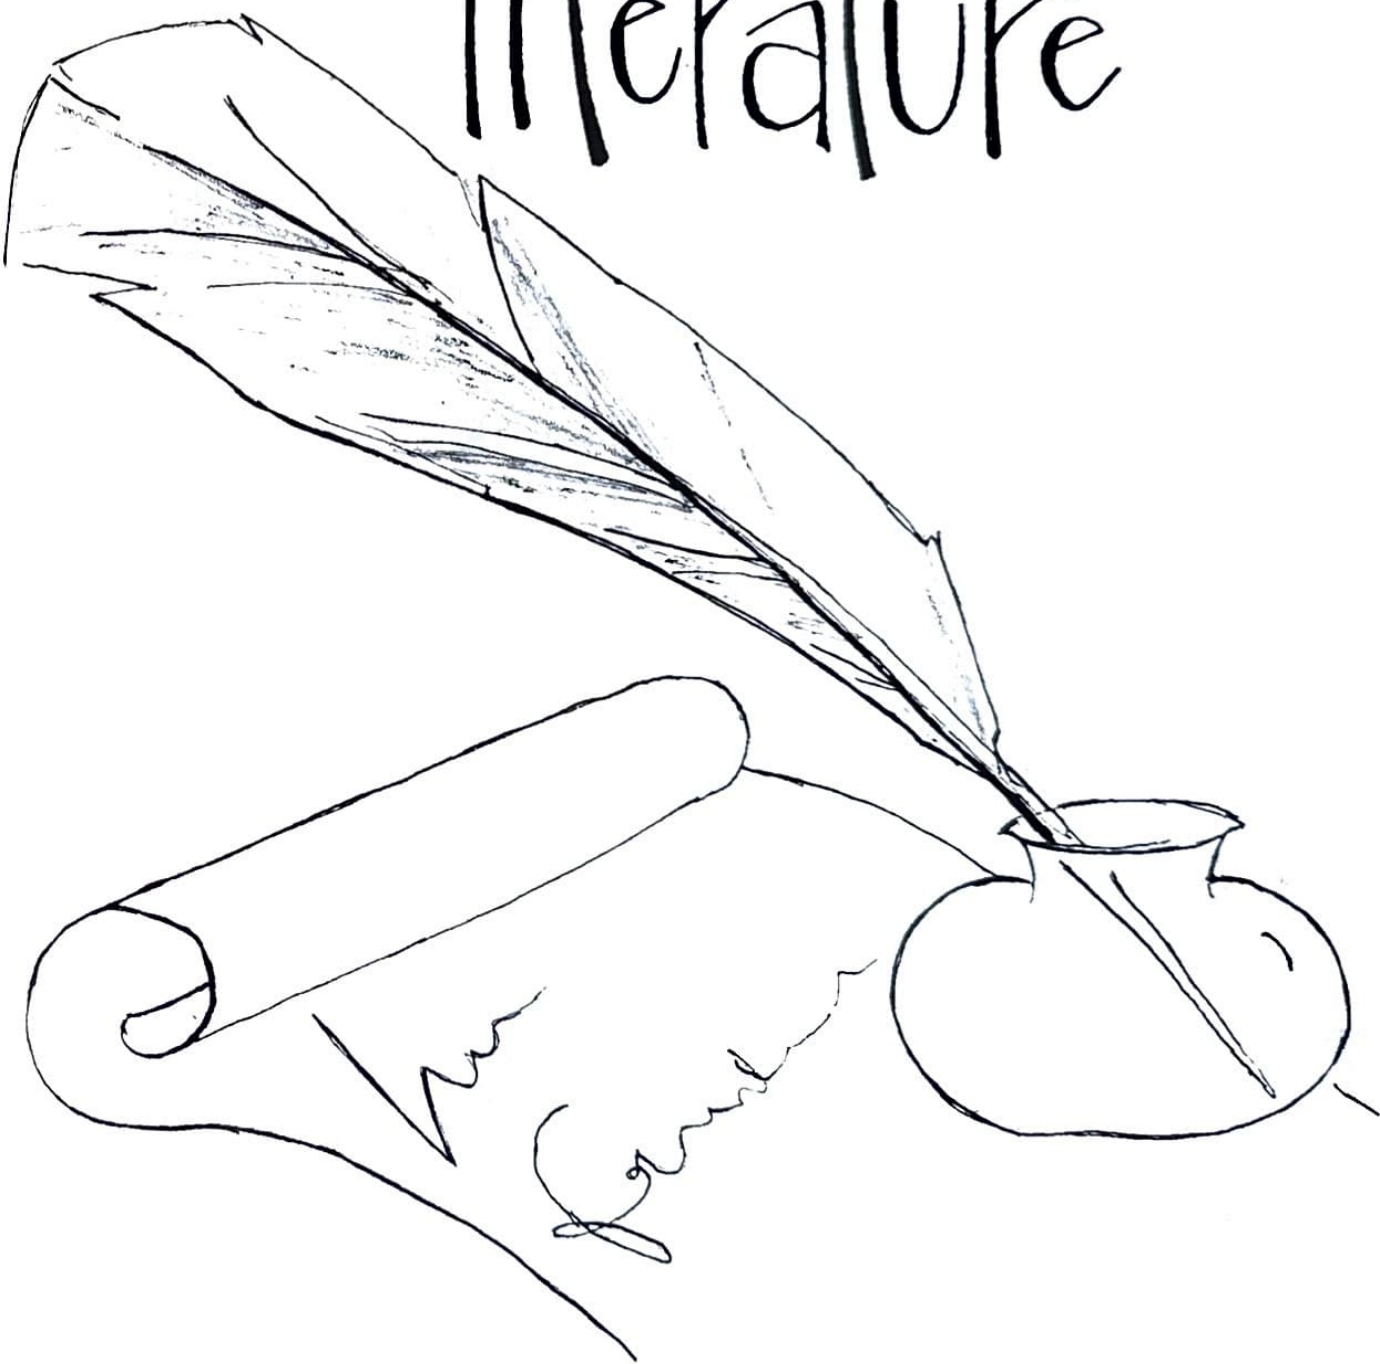

Tennyson once wrote: "I am a part of all that I have met." And so, the Sacred Heart community, including the students, administration and faculty who love what they do, have become a part of each and every one of us. I would also like to acknowledge that we would not be here today without the encouragement and love of our families.

To the graduating class of '99, high school would not have been the same without you. As we leave, it is difficult to find the right words to describe this lifetime experience. Sacred Heart's particular quirks and traditions will leave us with the best memories.

"So now we're standing face to face. Isn't this world a crazy place? Just when you thought our chance had passed, we went and saved the best for last." We will always be able to look back fondly and remember with pride that we were the graduating class of '99.

Amusing abuse

*I win a much-awaited-for walk with you and you discreetly but purposely splash me, you step into all puddles.
it's enough for me to know that you're still playing.
you'll forever be playing,
with my head.
you don't need to stomp, just step.*

Art and Poetry by Caitlin Reid

Mirror Image

*she peers grimacing,
loathing what she sees.
it's not my fault,
I'm only a mirror, reflecting what I see before me.
"my nose is too big,
my hair, too wavy,
I'm too short,
too fat..."
she pokes at her face dissatisfied, critical of every feature.*

*What can I do but show her a mirror image?
mirror, mirror
on the wall..
she looks to me
every day, searching,
yearning to find beauty from outside but how do I show her how to search inside, beyond a mere image.*

Emily Seng Yue

Tears of Love

She waits for him in the quiet darkness, The window against which she leans is cold and uninviting.

*No shining light to direct his path
But, yet, he runs to her wholeheartedly.*

*Steadily approaching steps are molded by desire,
She watches his silhouette move across the wall.
The sheet of ice which envelops her melts away.
His warm breath is upon the nape of her neck.*

*His tender caress brings colour to her pale cheeks, Passion rises and bursts like a newly-bloomed rose.
The strength of his embrace is reassuring,
She falls into him completely.*

*Now two bodies become one,
They move to the rhythm of united heartbeats.
These moments of sweet surrender are trapped in time,
These moments will never be forgotten.*

*His lips so pure against her own,
Every ounce of beauty shining through his eyes,
They touch the current of love deep within her.
Sighs of undying pleasure are wild.*

*When their tumultuous journey comes to an end,
When he has explored her as one does a new land,
She tastes the saltiness of her tears.
Tears sprung out of a consuming and indescribable passion,*

Tears of love.

Horses

*horses
see how they run away*

you left wandering again; mind preoccupied with thoughts of cannibalistic marsupials (or something of the sort) i wondered where you were of course i had no way of finding out the words we spoke were few bare shreds of information enough to appear civil without compromising ourselves

they laughed with you and i stared outside i longed for the warmth slowly became angry; just as slowly began to cry

you carry a box under your arm full of dreams perhaps mine never really taking time to care for my strength or anyone else's oh so accurate, always hit the needle on the head

*horses
see how they fall in the sand*

Evil

"O what a goodly outside falsehood hath!"
The Merchant of Venice, by William Shakespeare

I am a misty sea full of vengeance and hate.
The Love within has withered away.
I am a bunch of tattered lace.

Innocent and young
I once was.
I held the joys of life
within my eyes, a vase with eternal space.
Then someone came and shattered it.

I am a bitter fruit ripe and gleaming.
One single bite and you shall see,
the emptiness that is me.

For if pain is weakness leaving the body, then I am the sponge that absorbs this delight

The boldness of this world has made me old.
The body of a child, a heart but no soul.

Smiles are merely ornamental.
A laugh just a long lost echo down a hall with no doors.
There are only whispers on these empty shores.

A Rose so crimson you will never see.
Beauty is but a fragile image, pick up the Rose and you will see,
the red is only what you bleed.

For I exist,
I am everywhere.
My eyes are now upon you
For I am part of what you are.
My blood runs through your skin
I bet you did not know I was already in.

Helen Arceyut-Frixione

My Cardboard Box Days

We hear the screech of stopping brakes and rush outside to see what has come for us. Actually, it's really for our parents. The delivery man wheels out the precious cargo very carefully. We await our treasure with anticipation. Our eyes are filled with anxiety. But questions rush through our heads. Will our parents give it to us? How will we take care of it when it rains? What if it's too small? Finally, it's time to tell them our request, but who will ask them? I volunteer. So with all my courage, I walk up the stairs to the house and ring the doorbell. My neighbour appears in the doorway. "Once you're done with it, can we have it to play in?" I ask with uncertainty. Her response is "Yes". She comes back out and hands us what we consider to be "a child's riches". It is the BIGGEST, BROWNEST and most BEAUTIFUL cardboard box you will ever see!

So this is how I spent many of my childhood days: running around with my neighbourhood friends pretending that the unwanted refrigerator box was really our castle decorated with flowers and stars, by the little hands of three seven-year-olds.

Our parents could never understand why we insisted on keeping the overgrown box and would always try to persuade us to throw our kindgom away.... but we fought until the end to keep it.

Five years have passed since then but I still have vivid memories of those times. Now, whenever I see a box, whether it is big enough to be the space ship of a six-year-old or small enough to contain a child's most valuable marble, I go back to the days of my childhood when a simple box could take up hours of my imagination. I will never forget my cardboard box days!

Sports

Field Hockey

The 98-99 field hockey season was a very successful one for the home team. With the help of their great coaches and their amazing goaltender, they won gold medals and brought Sacred Heart its first field hockey GMAA Championship banner. During the playoffs, they defeated Hudson High in the semi-finals, and with that victory, moved on to the finals, where they would meet Beaconsfield High. They played a hard-fought game and beat Beaconsfield 1-0, on a goal scored by Jessica Ianni. Congratulations to all the players who helped the team win gold.

Bottom Row: Vanessa Clarke, Emily Seng Yue, Stephanie Maurel, Julia Hurtsfield-Meyer, Laura Snell, Sabrina Fabian.
Goaltender: Helen Arceyut-Frixione.
Coaches: Ms. Arvanitakis and Ms. Thomas.

From the expression on her face, you can tell that Angela Alberga just used a tremendous amount of force to hit the ball down the field. And it looks as though Stefanie Khoury is ready to receive the great pass.

Laura Snell, Jessica Ianni, and Sabrina Fabian run up the field.

Sarah Zullo and Emily Cholette race to the finish line in the Bantam 200m.

This year there were two football teams. There was a jamboree team for those whom this year was their first time playing football. Being part of this team gave them a chance to get to know the sport better. There was also an actual football team that was comprised of experienced players and any Secondary III students who were on the jamboree team. The students who belonged to the actual team have their names italicized.

Girls For The Cure

On September 11, 1998, the Sacred Heart girls joined their sister schools in walking to raise funds for breast cancer research. On this bright and beautiful day, we sang all the way up to the lookout on Mount Royal. Sacred Heart as an individual school raised approximately $18, 000; together, the five sister schools raised approximately $70, 000. Thank you to all the organizers and sponsors!

We're the girls for the cure and we're having a good time with the people we meet down on the line...

Get, get, get on down; I said get, get, get on down.

Do you enjoy what you do? Because if you do then walk 'cause Sacred Heart we rock!

I've got Sacred Heart Credibility.

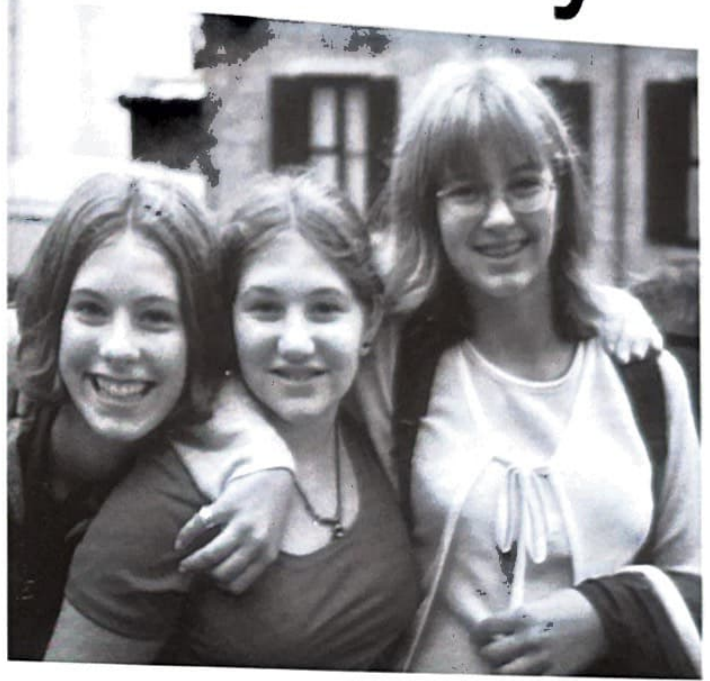

I say research needs me. Cancer's our cause and we agree! Rain or shine we're going to walk. . .

Trip to Québec City

Lydia Anber and Natasha Mairano manage a smile, even on the bus.

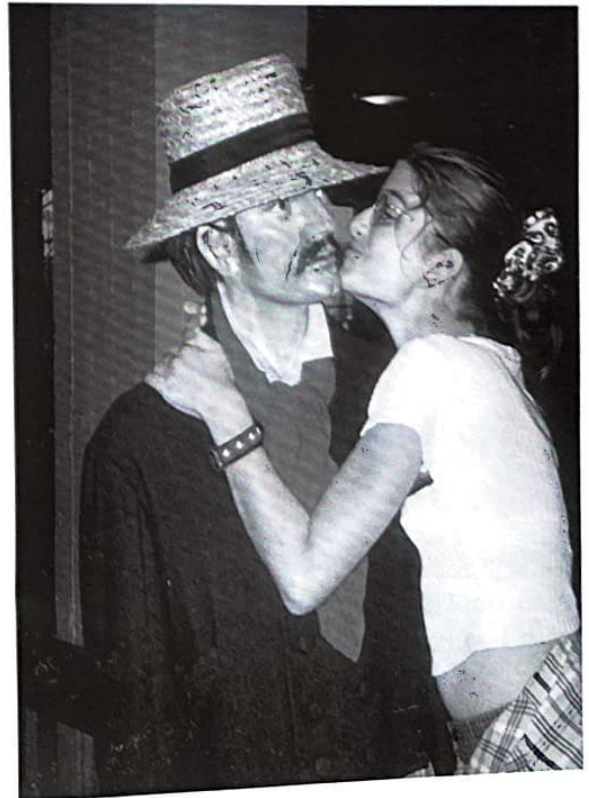

Magda Woszczyk, Jennifer Malo, and Cathy Religa, caught in a friendly hug.

Chloe Boone, Kylene Murrell, Catherine Kishfy, Summer-Marie Joseph, Stéphanie Maurel, and Claudia Gerarduzzi stop for a picture after shopping along the cobblestone streets of Quebec City.

On the 21 of September, the secondary two students went to Quebec City to learn about our magnificent province, accompanied by the French department. Arriving at the capital, the students visited the Plains of Abraham and had the pleasure of a boat ride. Summer-Marie Joseph wrote that: "l'activité que j'ai le plus aimée était le film Québec-Expérience." In the afternoon the students visited the city. Alexandra Barnabe wrote: "qu'elle a bien aimé sa journée à Québec et qu'elle espère y retourner."

Down The

After a late departure we left Sacred Heart with awaited anticipation. Ten hours later, we arrived at the Stratford Festival Inn. Later we saw Much Ado About Nothing and the next day we watched The Miser and Man Of La Mancha. After a party in the "suite", we returned to our rooms before the "security precautions" were taken.

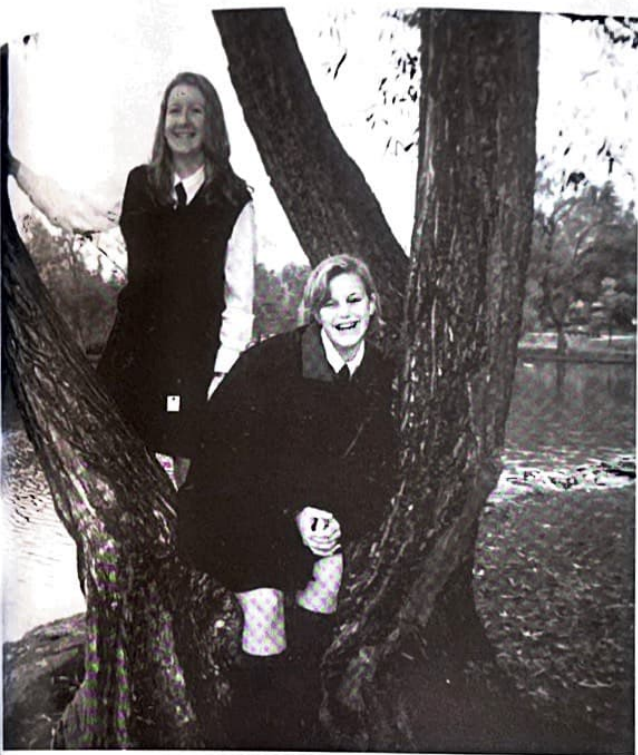

Stef and Mariana on their way to Tim Horton's for French Vanilla coffees.

Chloe, Amanda, Barbara, Michaela, Alexandra and Marianne taking time out of their busy schedules to capture the moment in a picture.

Stratford Lane

Krystyna and Katie always smiling big in the warm Stratford breeze near the Festival Theatre during free time.

Aisling, Allison and Mieke all smiles, grateful that they are off the bus and eating in the hotel. Cheers to Stratford!

Maeve, Carolina, Ayesha and Zehra'a are caught sneaking Mc D's after hours.

Carnival

Carnival this year was held from February 4 to 6. On Thursday, February 4, we went skiing and tubing on the mountain. The next day we had Junior and Senior days, where we had a great time playing games, doing karaoke and eating. On Saturday the always appreciated Carnival Dances were held at Loyola. Many friendships were created and renewed. We enjoyed being with students from Villa Maria, QAA and Loyola, and we all eagerly await next year's carnival.

T O R O N T O

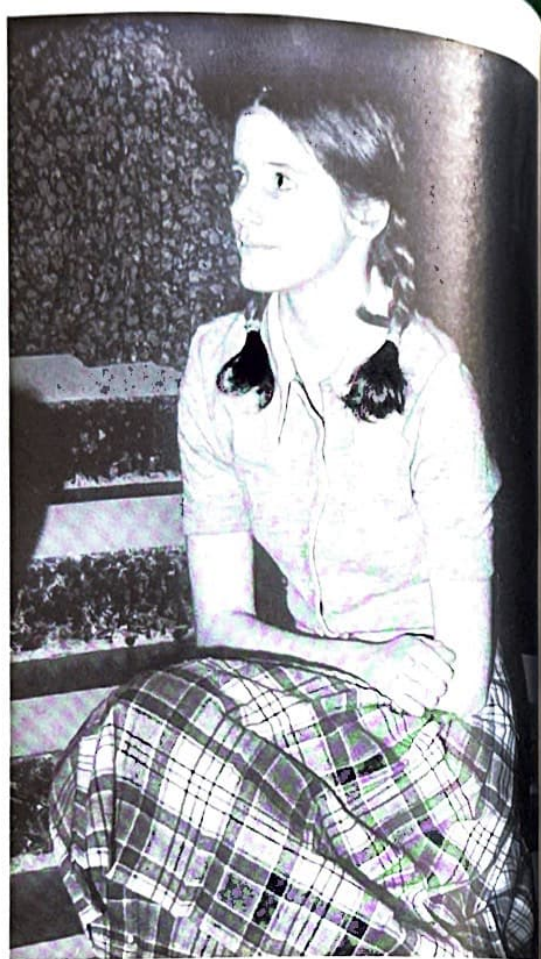

On the weekend of April 16 to 18, 1999, 18 girls, accompanied by Ms. Martel and a parent, went to Toronto to participate in the Independent Schools' Music Festival. After many hours of practising and shopping, we put on a concert with 300 other people in Roy Thomson Hall. We sang pieces ranging from the French-Canadian folk song J'entends le moulin to Verdi's Chorus of the Hebrew Slaves. We all greatly enjoyed our experience. Thank you Ms. Martel and Mme de Villers.

Secondary 5 Retreat

Our Last Retreat Together!

On January 14, 1999 the Secondary V's departed to St Jerome to have their last retreat. It was a sleepover filled with tears, warmth and happiness. Beaches, one of the movies we watched, evoked a lot of emotions as it opened our eyes to the realization of the power of friendship in our lives. Ms O'Neill made us all cry during the paralyturgy as we sat in candlelight listening to her say "You Are...". Our theme this year was The Power of One, and Angie, Sophie, Gayle, and Liza demonstrated it during one of our activities. Despite being snowed in, our retreat brought all of us closer as a grade. "We are shining through the darkness of the night...We are children of the light"

You Are.....

You are an amazing dancer
 When you smile, your eyes twinkle
 You can put Madonna to shame
 You take pride in working hard at your studies
 You are very outspoken
 You realized that there are great benefits in trying hard
 You seem like a very gentle person
 You seem to love your family very much
 You are so very honest and straightforward
 You are sincere
 You have brought a little Brazilian sunshine to us
 You are an amazing athlete
 You have intense eyes
 You are bright and sunny
 You are an individual
 You have a deep and soulful voice
 You are amazingly intelligent
 You are quiet
 You seem like a loyal friend
 You, I never had the privilege to get to know
 You write poetry that touches my heart
 You always say exactly what is on your mind, despite what others may think
 You are what I wish I had had the courage to be when I was a teenager
 You are still the same good natured girl that you were in the fifth grade
 You are so very easy to tease
 You are a devoted friend
 You are very beautiful, inside and out
 You have an incredibly generous heart
 You are often quiet, but can say so much with few words
 You are a mystery to me
 You can always manage to steal the show, just by the expression on your face
 You are an animal lover
 You share your sweet voice with others
 You are a beautiful, graceful dancer
 Your strength during difficult times has inspired me
 You are quiet and gentle
 You once made it very clear to me just how much you love the beach!
 You are a lovable scatterbrain
 You and I share a bond, and you know that I'll always be there for you
 You have a sweet, and friendly face

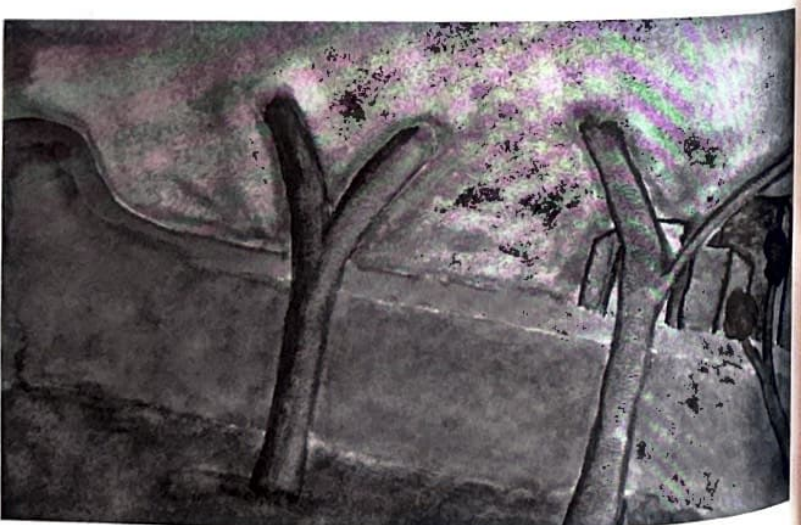

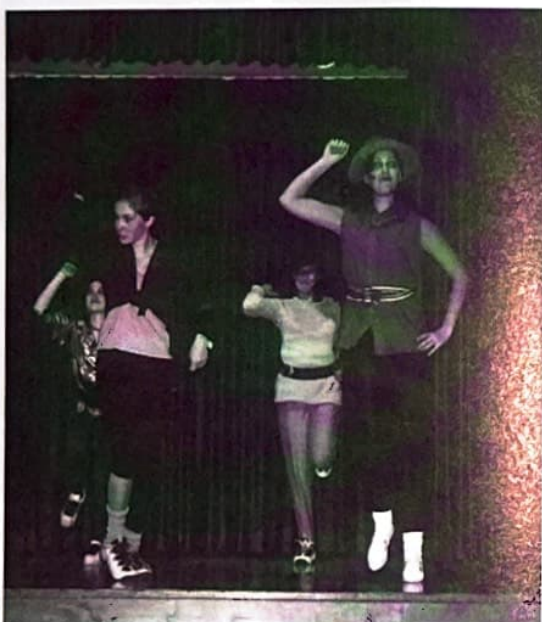

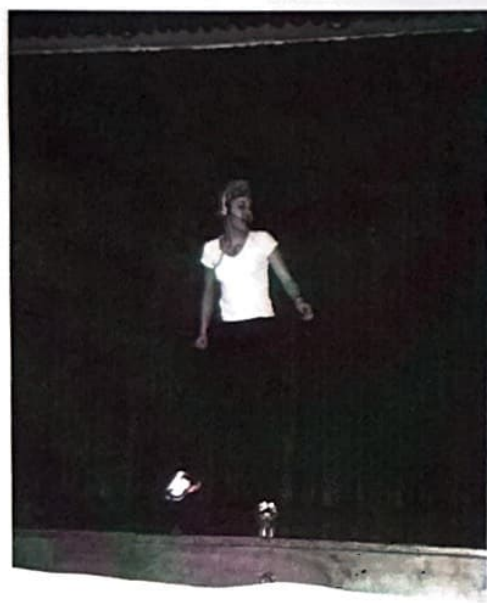

You should take your routine on the road, because you could be a millionaire by making people laugh
 Your face is an open book!
 You are definitely an over-achiever
 You are new to us, but it seems that you have been here always
 You have an adorable laugh
 You are a procrastinator
 You are a new, but cherished friend
 You have been a great challenge to me
 You have tremendous insight
 You have very unique handwriting
 You are my favorite flamenco dancer
 You are doing so much better since you started trying
 You always say the sweetest things
 You love horses
 You make me glad to be an English teacher, because I can read your beautiful words
 You and I survived boarding school together
 You are an optimist
 You are the head of the best house (had to, sorry!)
 You believed me when I said that something good can come from the hardest times

There is a piece of each of you that will always remain with me.....

Goodbye and good luck.

Yearbook Staff... and other things

Editor's message

well... it certainly was a stressful year. in fact, we were so busy taking pictures of the rest of you that we never got the chance to take pictures of ourselves. but i do have a few people to thank. first and foremost, my undying gratitude goes to sharma, who probably should have been editor instead of me, and without whom i would never have been able to do even a fraction of what we accomplished this year (though zehra'a was right, you are in dire need of Yearbooks Anonymous). i also want to thank christina, sabrina and of course ms. glickman, who gave me support, good ideas and lots of help. to all my staff, thank you for putting up with my moods and constant nagging, and for putting together a great yearbook. kudos especially to pauline and georgia, my only staff members to ever respect a deadline! finally, thanks to mr. kousik and all my friends for listening to my continuous ranting about all my problems. i wish julia, christina and the staff of the 1999-2000 yearbook luck and a lot of patience. marie
